VIRTUAL TEAM BUILDING

Resources and ideas for leading virtual team building sessions.
WHY TEAM BUILDING WITH REMOTE WORKERS IS IMPORTANT

You may think to yourself, "What is the point in team building exercises? My employees are getting their work done so why would I need them?"

The fact is that social isolation is something to keep in mind when transitioning to working remotely. Those small breaks of social interaction you likely experienced as part of your day (i.e., passing a co-worker in the hallway, walking over to a colleague's workspace to ask a quick question, etc.) are less likely to occur organically.

Working remotely does not mean that the connection among your group has to drop off. It just means that as a leader, you will need to be intentional in planning for ways to connect with your team and keep them engaged. Continue reading to see the activities and resources you can implement in your next virtual team meeting.

According to Harvard Business Review, employees with a higher sense of belonging on a team is linked to several positive factors, including:

- 56% increase in job performance
- 50% drop in turnover risk
- 75% reduction in sick days

"It's been found that feeling a sense of belonging is an important intrinsic motivator. Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs includes a sense of belonging as a major need that motivates human behavior - just like food, shelter and safety."

- Forbes Magazine
ACTIVITIES AND RESOURCES

ICEBREAKERS (5 -10 minutes)
- Alternate Questions
- Emoji Check-in
- Mix and Meet
- Rose/Thorn
- Show-and-Tell
- Team Shout Outs
- Work Playlist

GAMES (10+ minutes)
- Deserted Island
- Guess Who
- Office Fitness Challenge
- Remote Scavenger Hunt
- Virtual Happy Hour
- WVU Bingo

RESOURCES
- Leading at a Distance
  Webinar (36 min)
- Managing Virtual Teams
  Webinar (56 min)
- Leading Virtual Meetings
  Webinar (32 min)
- The best virtual team building activities, according to real remote workers

To ensure you are viewing the most recent version of this document, click here.